CITY COUNCIL

Acts on a Number of Matters of More or Less Interest to the Local Public.

The city council Tuesday evening allowed tax exonerations as recommended by the collector and treasurer.

An accumulation of bills was presented and the council ordered many bills paid.

M. G. Sperry's bill of $275 for legal services was again referred to the finance committee.

A bill by the city assessor for $200 was allowed.

The matter of paving Lee street along the property of John J. Davis was referred to the street committee for a report.

Charles O. Findlay's request that a survey be made of Elk street be approved, was referred to the city engineer and street committee.

Petitions for board walks and the like were referred to the street committee and superintendent of streets.

POLICE RAID

On a Third Street Building Results in Capture of Two Men and Two Women.

Ray Cork, Joe Strather, Grace Bennett and Gypsy Wagner forfeited bonds of $11.60 each when they failed to appear in police court this morning to stand trial on charges of assembling for immoral purposes.

All four were caught in a police raid on a Third street building at a late hour, last night, protests having been made by nearby residents against the noise made by the gay party. Officers Post and Joyce went to the scene and placed all under arrest. The officers said that all four were drunk.

THE THEATERS

on sealed orders and every order is carried out. A Selig play, "The Decision of Jim O'Farrell" and a Hearst-Selig pictorial news film are also shown. For tomorrow "The Biltmore Diamond" in two parts and another wonderful production will be offered.

Jack Lait has written a play called "The Bohemian," and Nat C. Goodwin will appear in it as the star under the management of Oliver Morosco.

Alexandra Carlisle, who plays the leading feminine role in Charles Klein's "The Moneybags," is said to bear a remarkable likeness to the photographs of Maxine Elliott.

In the cast of George Broadhurst's new melodrama, "The Law of the Land," are Julia Dean, George Fawcett, Milton Sills, Charles Lane, George Graham and Walter Craven.

Edna Goodrich will return to America early in November and work will begin on her pictures shortly thereafter. What a rare treat is in store for moving picture fans when this gorgeously beautiful actress makes her screen bow.

Charles Purcell, who will be remembered for his clever interpretation of "The Chocolate Soldier," is in the cast of "Pretty Miss Smith."
